Gee Family.

Edward Gee, D^r of Div^y & Dean of Lincoln. Will dated 9 June, 1727. Codicil, 7 Nov. 1727. Proved 10 April, 1730, by the relict, Jane Gee. Further Admon., 9 May, 1738, to his son, Edward Gee, the afores^d Jane Gee, the relict, being also dec^d. If I die in my Prebendal house at Westminster, I desire to be buried in the same grave with my two children, there interred; but if I decease at my Parsonage of Chevening, then to be buried in my Chancel there, South of the Communion Table, without pomp. By my Marriage Settlement the sum of £3,000 was to be laid out in the purchase of lands for my wife and her children, but the said purchase was not made, and all my estate and her fortune is in the Public Funds, &c, and I now give her £3,000. To my three children, Edward, Anne, and Martha Gee, £1,500 each at their ages of 21. Poor of Chevening, £5, and of St. Margaret's, Westminster, £5. Residue to my s^d wife, sole Executrix. At her decease, my daughters to have £1,500 each, and the residue to my son Edward. All my books and MSS. to my son Edward. My friends M^r John Brandreth, and M^r John Battely, of Westminster, Overseers, and to each a ring of £20. Wit: Rob^t Freind, Tho^s Fitz Gerald, Peirson Lloyd. Codicil, 7 Nov., 1727. My good brother, D^r Edward Wills, also to be an Overseer of my Will, and I give him £20 for a ring.

South Family.

Robert South, Prebendary of the Collegiate Church of S^t Peter in Westminster, and D^r in Divinity. Will dated Mar. 30, 1714; 1st and 2nd Codicil dated 2 June, 1714; 3rd Codicil undated. Proved 24 July, 1716, by Margaret Hammond, Exix. To Robert South, gent., my nephew by the half-blood, all my messuages, lands and tenements, descended to me from my father, situate at Whittley, commonly called the Hamlet of Whittly, in the parish of S^t Giles', Reading, Berks, he to pay £300 each to his sisters, M^{rs} Elizabeth Kirkland and M^{rs} Rachel Partridge (my neices by the half-blood), and also £300 to M^{rs} Rachel Taylor, only daughter of M^{rs} Jane Taylour (one of my neices by the half-blood, and sister of the said Robert), and also to pay to M^{rs} Elizabeth Morris, £300, and M^{rs} Elizabeth Terry, £100, now, or late, in Antegua, and both of them daughters or grand-daughters to M^{rs} Joan Hall, deceased (one of my sisters by the half-blood), or to their children, in case their mothers are not living. To M^{rs} Margaret Hammond, my housekeeper, relict of M^r Edw^d Hammond, clerk, deceased, all my messuages, &c., in Holyday Yard, London, which I hold by lease from the Dean and Chapter of S^t Paul's, she before her death to settle the same to some charitable use. I also give her my lands and tenements at Cavesham, a^ts Caversham, co. Oxon, and my Copyhold estate in the Manor of Cantlers, a^ts Cantlow, in Kentish Town, co. Middlesex, which at her death, are to go to the Dean and Chapter of Christ Church, Oxford, they out of the rents and profits of the two estates to pay £10 yearly to each of the Vicars or Curates (for the time being), of the following parishes, viz :—South Stoke, cum Capellis, and Norton Brayn, a^ts Brize Norton, co. Oxon; East Garston, co. Berks; Nethersell, co. Gloucester; Ardlington, co. Berks; Cherleton, co. Wilts; Little Compton, co. Oxon; Drayton, South Littleton, and Offenham, co. Worcester; Stratton Audley, and Dorchester, co. Oxon. Should any of the Vicars, Curates, &c., of the aforesaid parishes be convicted of anything grossly immoral, as whoredom, fornication, drunkenness, or common swearing, or anything scandalous, or against the Act of Uniformity, as preaching in, or going to any Conventicle or Meeting of Dissenters from the Church of England, then the said stipend shall not be paid to such Vicar, Curate, &c. The overplus of the rents of the aforesaid estates, after payment of the said stipends to be applied by the said Dean and Chapter to the use of six poor scholars, all of them of Christ Church, Oxon, but bred up in Westminster School, and then if anything remains of the said overplus, it to be applied towards the finishing of the new buildings in Christ Church and College, Oxford. I have at my sole charge erected a school at Islip, co. Oxon, and have vested the same in the Dean and Chapter of S^t Peter's, Westminster, and I give them £500 to purchase the perpetual Advowson of a good living for one of the students of that College. To the Dean and Chapter of S^t Asaph, £100 in trust, to apprentice poor youths of Llanchaiadar, in Mocknant. To the University of Oxford, £100 for the purchase of books for the public Library there. To 20 poor ejected clergy, £200, in sums of £10; and the like sum of £200 among 40 poor ministers' widows. To the Grey Coat Hospital, in Tuthill Fields, Westminster, £100. To 50 poor housekeepers of Westminster, £100 amongst them. To the poor of Cavesham, als Caversham, co. Oxon, where I have dwelt for many years last past, £10. To the poor of Islip, £5. To the poor of Hackney, co. Middlesex, where I was born and baptized, £5. Bequests to servants. All my plate, jewels, household stuff, books, and all residue of my estate, to my housekeeper, M^{rs} Margaret Hammond, sole Extri^x. Robert South. Witnesses: James Eales, Richard Nurse, John Walworth.

1st Codicil (2 June, 1714.) A judgment was obtained by M^r W^m Vernon, of Westminster, gent., against Dame Frances Atkins, widow, deceased, for £970, and I give the monies due to me upon that Judgment to my Extri^x, she to pay £500 to the Dean and Chapter of Christ Church, Oxford, towards the buildings of that Church and College. On the 7th April, 1714, I purchased of one, Henry Clements, bookseller, in S^t Paul's Churchyard, 3 vols. of "D^r Robert South's Sermons," each containing 12 sermons, for £107 10s., for that (real or pretended) right to the said volumes, he having bought them (as he said), of one Sir Thomas Gery, knight, and Dame Elizabeth, his wife, widow of Thomas Bennett, bookseller, her first husband, the said Bennett having formerly pleaded a right to the same by purchase from D^r Robert South, the author of them (which "he, the said D^r Robert South, very much questions"); I give the said volumes to my Extri^x to dispose of as she will. To the Hon. William Bromely, Esq., Secretary of State, D^r Francis Gastrell, Bishop of Chester, D^r John Hammond, and D^r W^m Stratford, both Canons of Christ Church, Oxon, each five broad Carolus pieces of gold for rings. Witnesses: James Eales, John Walworth, Richard Jones.

2nd Codicil, (same date as 1st). To M^r Robert South, of Northampton, Attorney (son of my half-brother, M^r James South, deceased), my father's picture, by Vanzoesh, in my lodgings at Christ Church, and two gold rings with my father's arms upon them, and to his eldest sister, M^{rs} Elizabeth Kirkland, my wrought bed (the work of my own dear sister Elizabeth, long since deceased), with some other things; also to his 2nd sister, Rachel Partridge, a silver tankard, silver cups, linen, &c., and to Jane Taylour (only daughter of his 3rd sister, Jane Taylour, deceased), my pearl cabinet, linen, &c. To M^{rs} Elizabeth Morris, of Antegua, in the West Indies, wife to Capt. Valentine Morris, and grand-daughter to my sister by the half-blood), M^{rs} Joan Hall, articles of silver, &c. To my near kinswoman and cousin german, by the mother's side, Dame Phebe Hardres, of Kent, her grandfather and grandmother Berry's pictures, one of her uncle, Capt. John Berry, and one of M^r Jeffery Berry, in his minority, also a gold seal with her grandfather's arms on it. Witnesses as in 1st Codicil.

3rd Codicil (undated and unattested), confirms the Will and aforesaid two Codicils, and is verified by the affidavit of Jonah Bowyer, of S^t Gregory's, London, bookseller, 24 July, 1716.

Cavesham, 29 Aug: 86.

My Noble Lord,

I should be very unworthy, if I should not with as much gratitude own y^e Favors designed, as y^e Favors done me by your Ld^p; being equally your Ld^ps ever obliged Debtor for Both.

Your Ld^p with y^e whole world is now a Witsesse of y^e Alienation of y^e Kings favor from me. The Cause of which, y^e B^p of Duresme, having sent for me about y^e beginning of this moneth, told me, was a Letter said to have bin Wrote by me not long since to D^r Bathurst y^e Dean of Wells & since by his Brother S^r Benja: Bathurst putt into y^e Kings hands, in which I had reflected upon m^r Walker of Oxoñ; though no particular was alleaged by his Ld^p of any such Reflexion. This, my Lord, is my whole Charge.

In answer to which I then assured his Ld^p, & doe now assure your Hon^r by all that is True & Sacred, yt at y^e Time of this Charge, I had not for 3 or 4 years last past so much as wrote to D^r Bathurst at all. And I have, since that, received a L^r from Him, in answer to one wrote by me to Him upon this occasion (which L^r I keep by me ready to be produced) in which he positively & Solemnly ownes & avowes y^e same.

And thus (my Lord) stands my Case. I am cast off & slurr'd in y^e face of y^e whole Kingdome for a Letter. A Letter that was never Wrote, never Received, & so, no wonder, if never Produced. If it can I will forfeit my neck to y^e Gallows. And y^e King himself upon y^e Report of my absolute denyall of it was so Gracious as to promise y^e B^p of Duresme yt he would enquire further into it & yt my Accusers should either prove w^b they had said true or y^mselves Lyars. The former, as I am sure, can never be done, & y^e latter I cañot yet hear declared.

And therefore (my good Lord) since neither y^e Kings former good Opinion & large Testimony of me Confirmed by that worthy Character given me by your Hon^r, & indeed by all y^e great ministers, have prevailed anything for me agst this pittifull malicious Whisper. I have but this one humble Request now to make to your Ld^p, viz: That if your Ld^p reteines any Kindnes for me as an old Servant of your family, & one whom your Noble father had a greater Kindnesse for than his misfortunes suffered him to show, your Hon^r would so farr Concern your self for me, as to search into y^e Bottome of this Businesse, & to find out by whom & for what I stand accused to y^e King; & when your Ld^p has informed yourself, y^t your Hon^r would Vouchsafe allso to inform me. Not y^t I have any thoughts of Creating y^e least Trouble to any one upon this Account, but y^t I may learn from hence both how to govern & secure my self for y^e Future. What your Ld^p shall doe for me in this matter I shall own as an obligation upon me to my dying Day.

Time, I doubt not, will doe that for me that I cañot do for my self, & every day more & more Convince your Hon^r of y^e sincere mind of (my Lord)

Your Hon^{rs} most faith-full humble & obliged servant

Edw. South

For y^e Right Honourable
Lawrence Earl of Rochester
Lord High Treasurer of England, & one of y^e Lords of his majestyes Privy Councill &c.

most humbly.
